EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

Undergraduate Mentoring Programs

Developed the Careers in Medicine (CIM) Program at Hackensack UMC: 2006-Present
The program is for college students who want to pursue a career in medicine. The students are mentored by ED providers throughout the summer. Sessions are also conducted on writing an essay, interviewing and admission strategies. There are 60 students enrolled per summer. Each year one of the students is mentored by Dr. Feldman.

Developed the Research Associates Program at Hackensack UMC, part of the National Alliance of Research Associates Program (NARAP); 2010 – Present

This program is for college students in the area interested in volunteering a few hours a week throughout the school year in Emergency Medicine research. Sessions cover human subjects protection, ethics, how to screen for and enroll human research subjects. Each year at least 2 of the students in this group are mentored by Dr. Feldman.

Developed the Take a Break Program at HackensackUMC 2010-Present

This program is for adult volunteers or undergraduate students who are trained to be part of the treatment team to provide direct patient care in several of the Hackensack Network Emergency Departments. This innovative award winning program is based on the patient and Family Centered Care Model.

Mentee: Priti Patel, SGU MS 3/Mentorship: 9/2012 – 2013/ completing a research project related to Hurricane Sandy HUMC – ETD relief experience

Graduate Educational Programs

Hackensack –Saint George University School of Medicine Clinical Clerkship Program 7/2010 – 9/2017
Have served as the Director of Medical Education since the inception of the program. I was instrumental in obtaining State approval of this program and the formation of the program. There are 100 students per year that complete core clerkships in Internal Medicine, Emergency Medicine, Surgery, Obstetrics/Gynecology, Pediatrics , Psychiatry and a variety of 4th year electives.

Clinical Placements: My department sponsors a variety of Medical Students and Allied Health Professional students from a variety of programs.

Post Graduate Educational Programs

Hackensack Emergency Medicine Residency Program: 2013- 2017. The EM 3 year Residency has 36 residents making it the largest program in the State of New Jersey. It is an allopathic ACGME fully accredited program for 10 years.

RESEARCH GRANTS

Dr. Feldman, Chairman of ETC, VP for AMERCO, Hackensack UMC is Host Hospital for AMERCO MSED
Estimated Grant Revenue for AMERCO MSED: $500,000

Project Period January -June 2016.

Project Abstract:

The AMERCO MSED provides mobile onsite Emergency Department Services in disasters and for planned medical services events. After Hurricane Sandy MSED assets were deployed in both NJ and NY. The MSED was also deployed for non-emergency events like Super bowl XLIX, Concerts and to provide community urgent care while construction of a fixed facility was completed. Kennedy Health in collaboration with the NJ Hospital Association in response to a grant funded by NJ Department of Health has requested a proposal to deploy 1 or more MSED (Mobile Satellite Emergency Departments) to designated Southern NJ Communities to be set-up and operational between January 1st (or later) and June 30th, 2016. These resources can be easily configured to support Kennedy Health's proposed program to the "Improving Healthcare to Veterans" grant by providing a safe, fully functional and state approved stand-alone clinical facility, featuring its own power generation, potable water and waste containment system. AMERCO MSED will deploy the assets, inclusive of set up, JIT operational training, continuous technical support, breakdown response, and required deployment end-servicing.

Ebola

2015-2016 Ebola Assessment/Treatment Centers Grant - EBOL16ATC002

Dr. Feldman, EVD Response Leader

Maximum Grant funds are $650,000

Funds are Retroactive to July 2014, forward to July 2018 (Five Year Period)

Project Abstract:

New Jersey (NJ) has identified one Treatment Center and two Assessment Hospitals. Each facility has received onsite visits from the Health and Human Services (HHS) Rapid Ebola Preparedness (REP) team and NJDOH subject matter experts in Preparedness, Disease Control, Environmental Health, Risk Communications, and Field Operations. Additionally they have completed comprehensive capabilities assessments in areas such as facility infrastructure, patient transport, laboratories, and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE). Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital (RWJUH) has been designated as NJ's Treatment Center. Hackensack University Medical Center (HUMC) and University Hospital (UH) have been designated as the State's Assessment Hospitals.

Our goal is to provide comprehensive and coordinated care to EVD suspected patients and to protect New Jersey's healthcare workers as they continue to perform job responsibilities. To fulfill our goal, this funding will directly support the treatment/assessment hospitals within NJ. The objectives are: 1.) To alter facilities physical space to allow for the proper donning/doffing of PPE; 2.) To retrofit facilities physical space to allow for the proper isolation/HVAC system to identify, isolate and treat a suspect or confirmed EVD patient; 3.) To modify other areas to ensure appropriate layout and assure good infection control; 4.) To purchase PPE and train staff on proper donning/doffing and correct PPE use 5.) To train and exercise healthcare workers on all procedures as it relates to a suspected EVD patient; and

6.) To purchase Point of Care (POC) laboratory equipment and supplies. The expected outcome of this project is to build capacity to treat EVD and similar communicable diseases, and to provide high quality medical care to patients.

2015-2016 IMPROVING HEALTHCARE TO VETERANS

I. Comprehensive statewide effort to serve veterans' primary care, behavioral health and other needs

II. Innovative or evidence-based smaller denomination grants that provide health wellness and management services or activities to veterans and their families

AMERCO received a sub grant of $284,000 under this project.

Department of Homeland Security UASI MRRP: to develop a prototype of a rapidly deployable Mobile Emergency Department: 2006 – 2010 Total: $ 15.2 million: RDINO07-4-2-0065, HDTRA1-09-C-0059 Grant Award No. 10-1937-BT-H-1 providing financial support for provision of healthcare emergency preparedness activities for pandemic H1N1 $94,308: 10/2009 – 7/2010
